

FREE ADMISSION

JOIN US!

YOU ARE INVITED TO TUTKU EDUCATIONAL LECTURES

Saturday, January 18

LECTURE SESSIONS - 45 MINUTES EACH WITH COFFEE BREAK IN BETWEEN

EGYPT

DR. JAMES K. HOFFMEIER

James K. Hoffmeier is Professor of Old Testament and Near Eastern Archaeology at Trinity International University, Divinity School (Deerfield, IL). Since 1994, Dr. Hoffmeier has directed the North Sinai Archaeological Project that is devoted to researching and studying Egypt's frontier during the New Kingdom and how this area may relate to the Israelite exodus from Egypt. Investigations at Tell el-Borg began in 1999, and concluded in 2008. Hoffmeier has consulted for and appeared in a number of TV programs on Egypt and the Bible for the Discovery Channel, the Learning Channel, the History Channel and National Geographic. He is the author of numerous articles and books, including his most recent book The Immigration Crisis: Immigration, Aliens and the Bible (Wheaton: Crossway, 2009).

14:00 - 14:45 The Land of Egypt

15:00 - 15:45 Overview of History
(Includes Important Site and Monuments)

16:00 - 16:45 Egypt's Empire in Asia
& Relations with the Hittites (Turkey)

TURKEY

DR. MARK WILSON

Dr. Mark Wilson is the founder and director of the Asia Minor Research Center in Antalya, Turkey, a country in which he and his wife Dindy have lived since 2004. He received a D.Litt. et Phil. from the University of South Africa (Pretoria) where he serves as a Research Fellow in Biblical Archaeology. He is a Visiting Professor of Early Christianity at Regent University and also Associate Professor Extraordinary of New Testament at Stellenbosch University. Mark regularly leads study trips for the Biblical Archaeology Society to Turkey, Cyprus, and Greece.

17:00 - 17:45 Paul & the Early Churches

INVITED GROUPS

- Licenced Tour Guides
- Local faculty from Aegean University, and 9 September University
- Archaeologists
- Consulate Members