This Zoom talk will offer an overview of the tour itinerary with slides of key sites to prepare everyone for the visit to Egypt. In October, the Grand Egyptian Museum opened up a number of its galleries to visitors for the first time. I will be visiting GEM in November to scout things out and will offer a report on my impressions. I will also address the security situation in Egypt so that participants can feel confident in their wellbeing while in Egypt. Lastly, there will be opportunities to ask questions.
